[Ch] We need to be brave, refine our World View

Sometimes misBEhave, grasp at the chance to

Belong to a tribe, 'n' TO recognise

Tune into, the Vibe, n' TO catalyse

Artists who're humane, star crossed or insane

Half-pissed or hare-brained, airin' contentious views.

Rescue Attention, Choose reinvention,

Use your abstention, Your INitiative Blues.

[V2] A young Man went West, to start in Med School,

And stung to address, impartial but cruel

Ordeal of children, left without healthcare,

Third world conditions, a living nightmare.

He got distracted, once pot attracted,

Focus impacted, dropped out of school to learn.

How to paint Cloud cars, fix up old guitars,

Banjos and Sitars, swapped, resold or returned.(Ch)

[V3] An old Man went East, close companionship

A Cuban Visit, Bro's Hemmingway trip.

Beret with cigar, sporting his grey beard, wearin' a red star, sort of just appeared

'n alter ego, Commandant Gordo,

Damned The Embargo, on LA Bonita isle.

Him and the Maestro, composed Bolero

Strumming tres cuatro, in BueNA Vista style.(Ch)

[V4] An old Man went North, Medicinal Trip

The Big C brought forth, the Big Chemo drip.

Not afraid to change, or turn on a dime,

Nor scared Of dange-, -rousness o' our time.

What a life it's been, pursued in between,

All that's int'restin', Just Causes HE'd have fought,

Racists he hated, Conscience created,

appreciated, Because HE gave up pot.(Ch)
