

Fat Dog Blues - for F.D. (6:12)

[Intro 16 Bar Blues] C C C C, F F C C, G F C C, G F C C

[V1] /Bb /B /C /E C/G /Bb /B /E /C /Bb /C

A young Man went South, Political Trip

/Bb /B /C /E C/G /Bb /B /E /C /Bb /C

Among, hand to mouth, Red Partisanship reared on Coltranes re,-cords "A Love Supreme",

F

C/G

Heard M.L.K say'em words "I have a Dream"

G

, F

But 8 months on he('s), shot on th' Balcony,

C/G

(Way) down in Tennessee , at twilight 'n Memphis

G

, F

Sparks o' Love went out, but Darkness can't drive out,

C/G

the darkest black out, onLY Light can mend this [Ch](need/creed/agreed/we need) to be brave, refine a World View.

InDeed(s) misBEhave, defy the curfew.

Belong to a tribe, 'n' TO recognise

RE Tune to, the Vibe, 'n' TO catalyse

Artists so humane, star crossed or insane

Half-pissed or hare-brained, who catalog abuse.

Resist convention, Endless dissension, builds comprehension, Fat Dog's (lit a F/aM/beM/a M)use.

[V2] A young Man went West, to start in Med School,

And stung to address, impartial but cruel

Ordeal of children's, life with no healthcare,

Third world conditions, a living nightmare.

He got distracted, once pot attracted,

Focus impacted, dropped out of school to learn.

How to paint Cloud cars, fix up old guitars,

Banjos and Sitars, copped on as he earned 's (Ch)

[V3] Two old Men went East, a Hemmingway trip,

In Cuba at least, they seem well equipped.

Beret 'n' cigar, sportin' th' grey beard, wearin' the red star, just sort of appeared

'n Alter Ego, Commandant Gordo,

Damned The Embargo, o' CuBA Libre isle.

Him and the Maestro, composed Bolero

Strumming tres cuatro, in BueNA Vista style, (a)(Ch)

[V4] An old Man went North, Medicinal Trip

The Big C brought forth, a Big Chemo drip.

Not scared to change('r), or turn on a dime,

No fear of danger-, -ousness o' our time.

What a life it's been, pursued in between,

All that's int'restin', Just Causes HE'd fought,

Racists he hated, Conscience created,

Initiated, (More)'cause HE gave up pot, we(Ch)

[Out] Indeed getting high, or drinking Bars dry,

Or shooting' mainlines, 's effective self-abuse.

We need the night sky, where Shooting Stars fly,

To appreciate just why, Initiative's a Muse.