Two Buskers Played, Grafton Street swayed, Mick and Glen in their Hey Day

Cadd9/G ("), Dsus2 D/A(x3) Dsus2, G6 G F#m/d C5 B5 Em Em11 Em

Through broken strings, soft 'n' sweet singing, Tragic Ends from beginning,

A fall from grace, a coma replaced, the music's silent, as a dead-end,

A lonely space, The Singer's place, Glen's lament, Heaven-sent, 's best friend.

Ch:Am/E(bcb)Em(g), C/B(c d) D Dsus2 D /F#/D/B/A

As his songs SWELL, Seasons ease our grief,

Am (cc b) Em/G, C/G C/B (ccdba) Dsus2/A(f# ed)D/A

Amongst this HELL's, no reasons nor relief,

C/G C/G -> ,D*/A ,G6 F#m/d Em Em11 Em(/B/G/E)

They have left us instead, our Bohemian dead, 'n WELL-lived life-times so brief.

Am->Bm C D*, D*->C->Em7/B /F#,(x2),Am C/B C ->D*,->Em7/F# Em11 Em

'n' MELodies, interweave, Mem'rys o' mischief, Meant to be's, 'n' Disbelief

V2:2 Poets rowed, an Oak and Willow, Bronze-age SAIL-Currach Naomh óg,

Ocean Camino, To Santiago, Pilgrimage TRAIL Ends near Vigo.

By God's own grace, Five oarsmen now face, their brave Captain, won't be revived.

A lonely space, in Danny's place, Glen's swan-dive, destined life, he survived.

(Ch)

V3: Two axes guard, our fallen Bard, Apples amidst a stockpile,

A willow coffin, oak 'n' ferns soften, (a)Chapel's Ornate Baroque style.

These songs that grace, humanity trace, our Dreams 'n' part 'f our suffering.

A lovely space, The Busker's place, Glen's SOUL brings, a heartwarming, off'rin'(Ch)

V4: Two Buskers Play, while Danny swayed, Mick and Glen "ligean do scíth"

Time now to sing, time spent distilling, poems 'n' pure poteen whiskey

There's a place, Time to retrace, crack open heart 'n' guitar case

A unique space, The Artist's place, Glen embraced, Art always, lit our ways,

Out Ch:"Make Art a place, o' hope for Art's sake,

Make Art, hold space, t' cope with heartaches".

""Let kindness in,-fill sufferin', don't ever reign it in" ((even on days that seem hard))

Let the Light Rays in, 'n' Art heal the pain, Help the Dream, remain"((Never wayward stay humane))

Dream Hard and then onward, thank you Glen Hansard))
