[Ch] Needed to be brave, refine our World View

Sometimes misBEhave, grasp at the chance to

Belong to a tribe, 'n' TO recognise

Tune into, the Vibe, meant TO catalyse

Artists who're humane, star crossed, insane

Half-pissed or hare-brained, 'n' their seditious views.

Rescue Attention, Choose reinvention,

Use your abstention, INitiative's Your Muse.

[V2] A young Man went West, to start in Med School,

And stung to address, impartial but cruel

Ordeal of children's, life with no healthcare,

Third world conditions, a living nightmare.

He got distracted, once pot attracted,

Focus impacted, dropped out of school to learn.

How to paint Cloud cars, fix up old guitars,

Banjos and Sitars, copped on as he earned.(Ch)

[V3] An old Man went East, a Hemmingway trip, to Cuba at least, He seems well equipped.

Beret with cigar, sportin' his grey beard, wearin' a red star, just sort of appeared

'n Alter Ego, Commandant Gordo,

Damned The Embargo, la CuBA Libre isle.

Him and the Maestro, composed Bolero

Strumming tres cuatro, in BueNA Vista style.(Ch)

[V4] An old Man went North, Medicinal Trip

The Big C brought forth, the Big Chemo drip.

Not scared to change('r), or turn on a dime,

No fear of danger-, -ousness o' our time.

What a life it's been, pursued in between,

All that's int'restin', Just Causes HE'd fought,

Racists he hated, Conscience created,

appreciated, (Be)'cause HE gave up pot.(Ch)
